

QUESTION : What is the rule set ?

ANSWER :

RULE SET =>

A table of instruction used by a controller interface to determine what data is allowable and how the data is handled between interconnected systems.

A rule set contains one or more selectors and one or more declarations.